

Carrigfoyle Quarry Trail, Wexford

Coordinates:

52.326998359703296, -

6.554782688357314

Trail Details

A beautiful spot to visit all year round within 15 mins of Wexford Town. Peaceful walks for all ages and abilities, with a multi-user and ambulant accessible trail which takes visitors to the waters edge of the lake. Ample parking spaces with 4 designated accessible parking spaces on site. Picnic benches, coffee truck serving snacks, with toilets including accessible WC afford the visitor the opportunity to spend as long as they may want, to take in the breathtaking views from the various trails, enjoy the beautiful scenery and fresh air that this high altitude site offers. An interactive way marker post designed with built in audio playback description of the site and its history is available at the lake site to further enhance the accessibility of the site (playback via scanning your mobile phone over the post)

Parking & Approach

There is ample parking on site with 4 designated accessible parking spaces located directly at the main access point to the trails. The surfaces are firm and compact along the multi-user and ambulant accessible route, concrete footpaths lead from parking to refreshment facilities with picnic benches also available at this location.

Multi-User Surface

This trail consists of a multi-user surface, allowing both mobility aids and walkers of all abilities to use the trail and witness the natural beauty of the area.

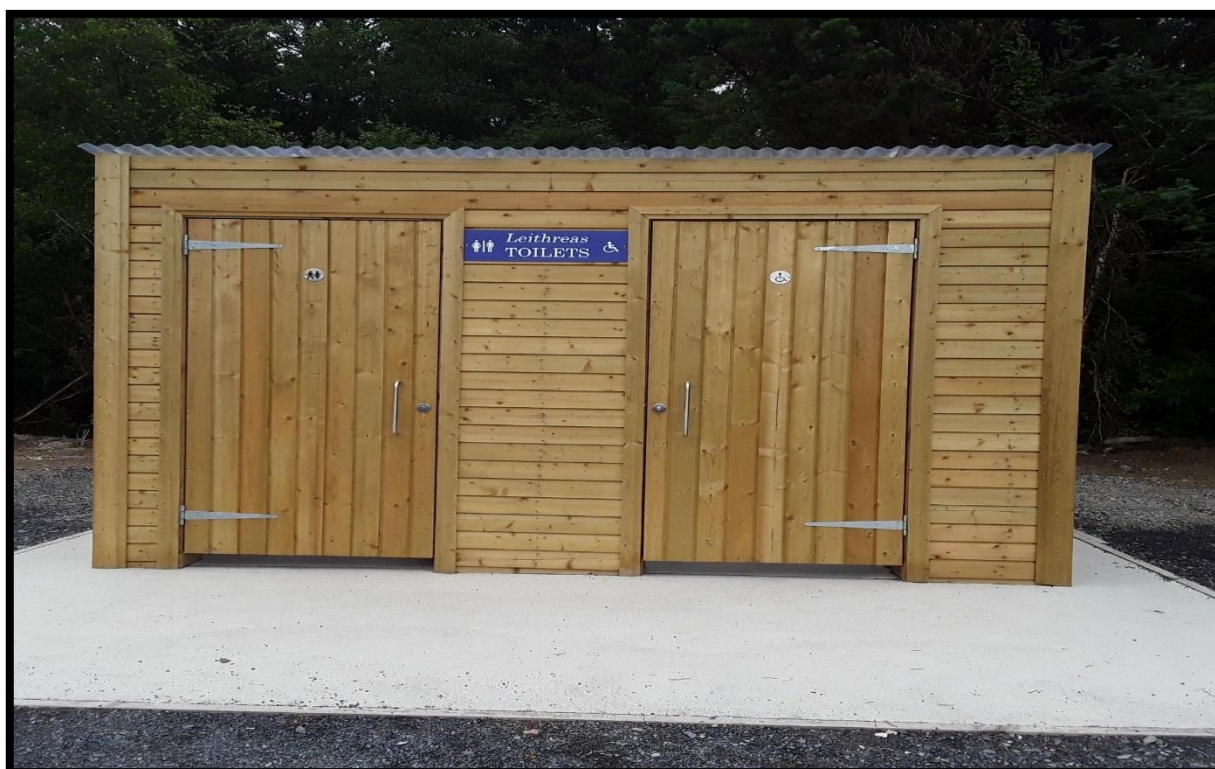

Features

Viewing points are located along the multi-user trail and at junctions between this and other trail routes. Seating is provided to afford the opportunity for the visitor to take time out a take in the surrounding views and features.

Toilet & Accessible WC Facilities

Facilities such as male and female toilets and an accessible WC are located on the site, signposts throughout indicate distance to their location from the parking area. Note the route to the toilets are sloped and have varying gradients between 1:8 -1:21.

Refreshments Truck & Picnic Area

A snacks truck and picnic benches on site provide visitors the opportunity to take some time out to rest and avail of refreshments while taking in the views and atmosphere of the great outdoors.

